

Malaysian inspection of Argentina's meat and milk establishments concludes positively

A final meeting at the headquarters of the National Service of Agro-Food Health and Quality (SENASA) in Buenos Aires marked the end of a 14-day inspection visit from the Malaysian Division of Veterinary Services (DVS) to the meat and milk production chain in Argentina with a view to approving new processing facilities to export their production to Malaysia.

The Malayan delegation, made up of representatives from DVS and the religious authority JAKIM, began its inspection on last June 20 and focused on assessing food quality standards as well as the fulfillment of Halal protocols.

During the final meeting, the head of the DVS delegation, Ardhy Bin Adnan, expressed that: "All the establishments visited show a very high level of compliance in matters of control and supervision of their processes".

Argentine children promise loyalty to our flag

On June 20, Argentine children aged 9 and older who reside with their families in Malaysia gathered at the Official Residence of the Ambassador to participate in the ceremony of Promise of Loyalty to the Argentine Flag. This traditional event, which is very emotional for kids as well as their families, takes place yearly and has the goal of strengthening the feeling of belonging to our country amongst residents abroad. After making their oaths, the candidates received a diploma signed by the Ambassador.

After the protocolar event, Argentine empanadas and typical desserts were served for the participants and their families' indulgence.

Argentina strengthens its economic relations with Southeast Asia

On last June 14, Minister of Foreign Affairs Santiago Cafiero received the Heads of Mission of the embassies of Indonesia, Malaysia, Philippines, Thailand and Vietnam in Argentina, all members of the Committee of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) in Buenos Aires, currently chaired by the Malaysian ambassador to our country, Nur Azman Abdul Rahim.

In this framework, Minister Cafiero analyzed and highlighted the good levels of trade exchange between the two regions and its growth possibilities, as well as the cooperation projects being implemented and the investment opportunities in sectors such as energy, infrastructure and agricultural technology, where there is a clear potential for joint development.

In their turn, the Heads of Mission thanked the donations of COVID-19 vaccines that Argentina made to some of their countries, as well as the support given by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs to the activities carried out by the Committee. They also agreed on the potential, both in economic matters and cooperation, that the relations between ASEAN and Argentina have to offer.

June 10: Day of the reaffirmation of the Argentine rights over the Malvinas, South Georgias and South Sandwich Islands and the surrounding maritime areas

On June 10, 2022, the Government and the People of the Argentine Republic commemorated the 193rd anniversary of the creation, in 1829, of the Political and Military Commandancy for the Malvinas Islands and the islands adjacent to Cape Horn by the Government of the Province of Buenos Aires.

On 3 January 1833, the effective exercise of Argentine sovereignty in that area was interrupted by an act of force carried out in peacetime by the United Kingdom, which illegally occupied the islands and expelled the legitimate Argentine authorities settled there and the existing population. This usurpation disrupted the territorial integrity of Argentina, a situation which was immediately rejected and protested, to which no Argentine Government has ever consented in over 189 years.

Since then, there has been a sovereignty dispute between the Argentine Republic and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, as recognized by the United Nations General Assembly through Resolution 2065 (XX), adopted in 1965.

The Argentine Republic reaffirms once again its sovereignty over the Malvinas, South Georgias and South Sandwich Islands and the surrounding maritime areas, which are an integral part of its national territory. The recovery of the effective exercise of our sovereignty over the Malvinas, South Georgias and South Sandwich Islands and the corresponding maritime and insular areas, in accordance with international law and respecting the way of life of its inhabitants, is a permanent and inalienable objective of the Argentine people, as established in the first transitory provision of our National Constitution.
